DCI SECURITY COMMITTEE

MONTHLY REPORT

December 1977

I. Highlights:

a. The DCI approved circulation for NFIB vote sheet action of a SECOM proposed DCID to establish uniform administrative procedures for handling compartmented information. This DCID will bring together in one regulation all procedures for the security control of such information. This will facilitate understanding and compliance with administrative requirements.

b. The A/D/DCI/IC approved for the DCI circulation for NFIB vote sheet action of a Security Committee proposed DCID revising security policy on travel and assignment of personnel with access to compartmented information. This DCID will bring that policy into line with current conditions and needs.

c. Department of Defense security policy officials were briefed on lessons learned from the Boyce-Lee espionage case on 19 December 1977. The briefing emphasized corrective measures taken with regard to industrial security.

STAT

II. Ongoing Activities:

a. The Acting Chairman, Security Committee, participated in organizational meetings of the Committee's working group on security aspects of foreign disclosure of intelligence. A request was made to COMIREX and the SIGINT Committee for a representative to attend future meetings to provide briefings and assistance in their fields of expertise.

b. The Committee staff maintained liaison with other agencies involved in drafting the proposed Executive Order on security classification, and sent a copy of the final draft Order to all concerned ICS components for comments to serve as the basis for a recommendation to the DCI.

c. The Committee staff provided comments on and suggested changes to the security section of the latest draft of the national/tactical interface report.

d. The Committee staff submitted additional draft definitions of terms of security interest for consideration by the Definitions Working Group.

STAT

f. The Committee's Research and Development Subcommittee forwarded a technical security threat estimate on power supplies to the Committee staff. This estimate was sent to all Security Committee members and to the NFIB Secretariat for distribution to member agencies for their information and security guidance.
